BRYANT - TINNELL

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Tinnel announce the marriage of their daughter, Becky, to Lloyd Bryant, son of Mrs. Dallie Bryant and the late Mr. Bryant, of Vera. The ceremony took place at 7:15 P. M. Saturday evening in the home of the Rev. L. Preston Brown.

The bride was dressed in navy blue suit and black accessories, and wore a corsage of red roses.

After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home at Vera.

Uncle Sam Says

Horatio Alger's favorite theme was "America is the land of opportunity" and I am sure he would agree to an other important factor—the cornerstone of security in the future is the cultivation of sound saving habits. Right now, in this new year 1950, you can take advantage of one of the safest, surest opportunities to save ever offered — U. S. Savings Bonds. You can buy Savings Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work, or if self-employed, the Bond-A-Month Plan at your bank. Just think, 10 years from now, you will begin receiving $4 for every $3 invested today. Sign up now for one of these two safe and sure ways to provide future security.

WOOD - AGEE

The wedding of Miss Kathleen Lee Agee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Agee, of Appomattox, to Mr. Allen Leftwich Wood, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wood, of Concord Depot, was solemnized on Saturday evening, December 31, at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. J. Marshall Walker, pastor of the bride, performed the ceremony.

The house decorations were of evergreens, white chrysanthemums and white roses. The room in which the ceremony was performed was lighted by tall white tapering candles placed in candelabras on either side of the improvised altar.

The bride entered the room with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. Her gown of white satin was designed with fitted bodice, portrait neckline and long pointed sleeves. The full skirt gracefully formed a circular train. She wore a shoulder length veil of French illusion which fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses centered with gardenias.

Miss Margaret Wood, a sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Her bouquet was of yellow roses. Little Miss Carolyn Dawson, of Dillwyn, a cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. She wore a long plush pink taffeta dress and carried pink flowers.

The groom had as his best man, Courtney King, of Concord Depot.

Both Mrs. Agee and Mrs. Wood wore black dresses with shoulder corsages of white gardenias.

After the wedding, a reception was held for the guests which included out-of-town relatives. The wedding cake was cut by the bride and Mrs. Richard D. Robinson presided at the punch bowl.

For their wedding trip, the bride wore navy blue suit with grey accessories and a shoulder corsage of white gardenias. On their return, the couple will make their home at Concord Depot. The groom holds a position in Lynchburg.

A large number of friends and relatives attended the Golden Wedding Anniversary party of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Page at their home last Tuesday evening, December 20. Among those present were their eight children, fifteen of their nineteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Evergreens and gold decorations were used throughout the house, carrying out the holiday season note. A prayer service was held by members of Mrs. Page's church before the party began. Many nice gifts were received, one being a white and gold wedding cake given by a daughter-in-law.
